

High praise all round for Australia's Inaugural Copper Conference!

The Australian Copper Conference 2010 brought together Australia's leading players in the copper mining sector with an audience of industry experts and bona-fide retail investors eager to discover who the big winners were in this valuable and progressing market sector.

Attendees were overwhelmingly pleased with the conference, as expressed by the following comments:

"[Copper Conference 2010 provided] ...exactly the sort of information that we need to help make the right decisions in running our business and making capital investments for the future."

Steve F. Finlayson
Executive Manager - ALS Laboratory Group

"Quite a few people commented that it was one of the best conferences they had attended and I am also of the same opinion."

Christine Coonan
Deputy General Manager - Metal Division Mitsui & Co

The Sunny Side of Life at the Gold Coast Resources Showcase

Participants of the Gold Coast Resources Showcase 2010 were willing witnesses to the sunny side of life, with over 300 delegates listening intently to every word.

It was again apparent that there were many serious investors within the auditorium, as it was consistently filled throughout the conference, and feedback suggests that some delegates have invested heavily in a number of the companies present.

It just goes to show, some extraordinary outcomes can come from the most unlikely of places.

RIU Sydney Resources Round-up surpasses all expectations...

Following a dip in industry confidence, defined by the global financial crisis, the RIU Sydney Resources Round-up 2010 proved to be a great success!

With much talk surrounding the Federal Government's announcement of a proposed Super Profits Tax on the mining sector, many were excited to hear Malcolm Turnbull MP respond to the issue on the first day of the conference.

A Decade of Mining Excellence

The Mining 2010 Resources Convention is one of Australia's most widely regarded events within the resources industry and it is anticipated that with almost a decade under its belt, this year's event will be the best yet.

The conference will run over three days, from 27 to 29 October, 2010, at the Hilton Brisbane and will include two auditoria and an 82 booth exhibition area, where companies will showcase the latest of their projects and forecasts.

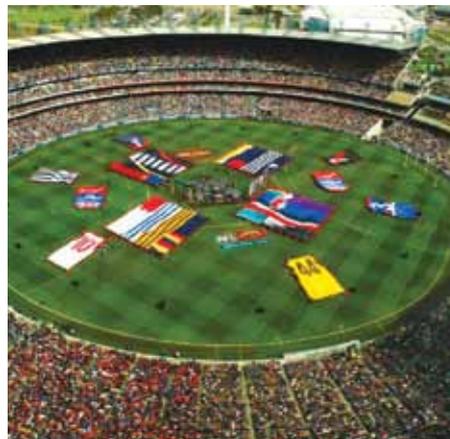

The programme for this event is now available, so be sure to visit the Mining 2010 website to download your copy online!

Glowing feedback from the Australian Uranium Conference

With nearing 500 local and international delegates the Australian Uranium Conference 2010 was buzzing with energy. Participants were pleased by the quality of attendees, with many trading house representatives from Japan, China and North America present.

The technical and government presentations, held in conjunction with the company presentations, proved to be a huge draw card and provided some interesting discussion points for those in attendance.

Mining, Resources . . . and AFL

If you love mining and the footy, the RIU Melbourne Resources Round-up is the place to be!

Following on the success of the RIU Sydney Resources Round-up, the RIU Melbourne Resources Round-up is set to bring Australia's resource companies together with the Melbourne investment community. Presentations will take place over two days on the 22 and 23 of September 2010, with a 42 booth exhibition area open to delegates throughout the event.

Scheduled to take place during the week leading up to the AFL Grand Final weekend, this conference provides the perfect opportunity to mix work with pleasure in Australia's cultural centre.

The programme for this conference is now available! To register online as a delegate and avoid disappointment please visit www.riuconferences.com.au. Be sure to book soon as flights and accommodation for this week will fill quickly!

RIU Good Oil Conference gets technical

With great excitement and anticipation, Vertical Events is proud to announce that the RIU Good Oil Conference will now host a number of technical presentations from industry professionals. These presentations will be held upstairs, in the Curtin Technical Auditorium, in addition to the corporate conference during the late morning and early afternoon sessions of both conference days.

In a year of many firsts, the RIU Good Oil Conference will be supplemented with a day on the greens, allowing interested stakeholders the opportunity to network outside of the conference arena. The RIU Good Oil Golf Day will be held on 10 September, 2010 at the Collier Park Golf Course, Como.

To view the RIU Good Oil 2010 programme, register as a conference delegate and Golf Day single player or team registration, follow the link from the Vertical Events web page.
